Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

The GCW appreciates the kind words received about the information about Registration Day, contained in our last week's issue; yet it felt that by spreading that information as far and as wide as we could, we were contributing our bit to the success of the great national effort to register the Nation's manpower. We felt that such information was very vital to Grenada County people, much more vital than news about Russia, Germany, Peoria, Searcy, Boston and so forth. Before leaving for Memphis, Monday, we earnestly requested that Mr. Horton, whom we had asked to prepare the article, give a copy of the article to other newspapers in the county. Mr. Horton assured us that he delivered the original to the other newspapers of Grenada County. Mr. Underwood, the other member of the Election Commission, also joined us in our request to our our Chairman, Mr. Horton.

Several want our diet list so that they, too, may get rid of that M. A. spread. We refuse, for we are in the newspaper business and not in competition with the Clinic, which is one of our good customers.

Poor squirrels!

Things not generally appreciated by the rank and file: Grenada Industries and other industries in Grenada. Let them stop paying out money and we will miss them terribly.

Oh me!! I now know how a bird feels when he is let out of the cage.

If I look like a "skelipin," and diet like a sissy, just wait until I get off those next ten pounds.

Me and Politics have gone out of business.

Our Mr. Horn has not fattened a pound since he and I used to work together. A lean dog for a long race, they say.

Greenfield gave up dieting with disgust after one meal.

Eddie Gant, of Elliott, must have sold a possum skin, a bale of cotton, or a shoat, for he renewed recently.

Yes, we do printing.

Our best wishes go to Lamar Sledge, his wife and baby son, in their temporary home in Winona. Lamar helped us establish this great religious weekly, and is a darn good printer.

These short drawers will soon be discared for those long-handled stepins.

If anyone reads this item at the Vets Hospital please tell my favorite nurses, and my many friends and buddies there howdy. Tell them the bottoms of my feet are already getting dirty, that I do not shave every day, that I will be back up there again if I ever get to feeling bad again.

Honest John Bradley, under duress of my owing him a bill, paid his subscription recently. A good many approached John to run for my place on the Board, but he, like myself, has definitely laid politics by with two furrows with a middle buster. That's the acme of laying by.

Aunt Ellis Terrell, a grand old lady, recently paid her subscription.

"Miss" Anna Turnage pitched in four bits.

Better happenings are reported from Mt. Neob where Jutt Cook is making twenty bales on eight acres—one bale of cotton and nineteen bales of hay.

Whenever I get homesick, I am going back "home" to the Vets Hospital.

If everyone on the Yalobusha River wrote as many letters to government officials, and talked and worked as much for improvement of drainage in this vicinity as Bill Saunders, Red Briscoe and old man Jim Shaw, to mention a few, we would get somewhere. While everyone may not have crops subject to inundation, it is to the interest of EVERY citizen to see that something is done. I do not think old Red has a foot of land along the river, but he has a stack of correspondence on the subject that a kangaroo could not hop over.

To change it a little, several were killed on 51 South Saturday night. We refer to pints.

Our former Mr. Horn is now employed at the GCW.

Speaking of Oxberry, Freddie Little reports everything quiet in that community, crops short, wells dry, wood scarce, and everything on the down and down.

John Sevier Henley, Age 62, Died Oct. 12th

John Sevier Henley, age 62, passed away at the Grenada Hospital Saturday. Funeral services were conducted at his home near Haserway Sunday by the Rev. C. A. Pharr; after which interment was in the Woodlawn cemetery.

The deceased was born in Danielsville, Ga., July 31, 1878, the son of John Harvey and Rebecca Ann Henley. He became endeared to the father of Rev. C. A. Pharr, a minister there. Mr. Henley had made a request that his funeral be conducted as it was.

Having gone to Kentucky when young, he married Gertrude Mullican Wolfe, who survives, and with whom he came to Grenada County, thirty years ago, becoming a most highly respected citizen.

Other survivors include seven daughters, Mrs. C. H. Ingram, Mrs. K. R. Smith, Mrs. F. G. Patterson, Mrs. L. E. Heldrix, and Misses Eva Mae and Bettie of Grenada; Mrs. Guy Bridgers, of Batesville. One son, John Harvey survives, while two sons, Willace Lellon and Jack preceded him to death.

Five grandchildren, John Burt Smith, Billy Hanley, James Ray and John Paul Bridgers and Virginia Ann Hendrix. Four sisters, Mrs. C. P. White of Alabama; Mrs. Myrtle Elrod of Luthersville, Ga.; Mrs. Hoyt White and Miss Eva Henley, both of Danielsville, Ga.; three brothers, T. L. Henley, A. D. Henley, and Paul M. Henley all of Danielsville.—(Contributed.)

Grenada Bulldogs Up-Set Indianola 21 to 0

The Grenada Bulldogs went out on the Field definitely the under-dogs, according to the dope, and scored three times to the Indianolans none. Two of the touchdowns were made through the air and one on the ground. The first quarter saw the well oiled machine of the Indians march down to the 1 yard strip.

In the second quarter Frank Marascalco made the first touchdown on a beautiful end sweep. The extra point was made by a pass from Thompson to Dale Harper. Edgar Turnipseed, Marascalco, and Thompson worked the ball down to the 18 yard line as a pass from Thompson to Captain Harper accounted for 6 points. As the third quarter ended Marascalco went over tackle for the extra point. In the fourth quarter Thompson passed to Harper for the third touchdown. Marascalco again added the extra point.

The Indianola Indians rolled up 9 first downs while the Bulldogs were making their ten. Grenada gained considerable more ground by rushing and doubled them in passing yardage.

It would be foolish and quite unfair to pick any individual stars out of the game . . . they all played superb ball.

PRESBYTERIANS TO HOLD WEEK OF SERVICE

Rev. C. A. Pharr, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Grenada anounces that Rev. J. R. Cunningham, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Winston-Salem, N. C. will begin a series of sermons on Monday, Oct. 21st. His first sermon will be delivered at 7:30 p. m. Monday and the sermons to follow through the week will be daily at 10:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. Cunningham, a former pastor of Grenada Presbyterian Church has many dear friends here who are looking forward to greeting him also to attend the services where they will hear deep spirited messages.

Everyone invited to attend.

SUPERVISORS ATTEND CONVENTION

All of Grenada County's Board of Supervisors, except their president, Dave Williams, are attending the annual convention of supervisors being held this week on the Gulf Coast. Mr. L. P. Horton, Beat One's member, is a Director of the state association.

BOY SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

On Tuesday night, October 22, at 7:30 a Boy Scout Court of Honor will be observed in the high school building. A feature of this Court of Honor will be the awarding of Eagle Badge to Bennie Cohen. Parents and friends of the scouters are invited and urged to be present.

Sam Blair, cowman, farmer and planter of near the edge of Little Texas, recently left the imprint of his tracks on the cash book. Sam and I sometimes differ but remain the best of friends.

NEW EAGLE SCOUT

LEON PROVINE

Leon Provine, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Provine, was recently honored by being awarded the Eagle Scout Badge of the Boy Scouts of America. This is a distinction that comes to about one boy in 500 of the scout organization. It is the highest rank in Scouting. Leon has been a boy scout for nearly 4 years. He has earned and been awarded thirty-nine different merit badges which appear on the sash that he wears in the picture above. Leon is not only an outstanding scout, but a student of high rank. He is vice-president of the Junior Class, a member of the Glee Club, and is now serving as Junior Assistant Scout Master.

He has more medals than Stalin.

Still Destroyed Near Oxberry

According to official reports coming from the office of Mr. E. S. Chapman in Jackson, a 60-gallon distillery complete together with 120 gallons of rye mash, was destroyed 2 miles west of Oxberry with Lent Payne taken in custody in connection with this alleged violation.

Government agents, assisted by Mr. J. D. Crenshaw, were the arresting officers. The still apparently, from the description of its location, was on woodsland owned by the editor's wife, Mrs. W. W. Whitaker. Lent Payne, is a native of Tallahatchie county, but has lived in and about Oxberry for a number of years.

KIMBROUGH NEW MEMBER HORTON, NEW CLERK, DRAFT BOARD

Following the resignation of Mr. M. McKibben, attributing bad health as his reason, from the local Draft Board Mr. Orman L. Kimbrough was appointed by Governor Johnson to this important board.

Mr. S. H. Horton has been appointed as clerk of the Draft Board.

The entire set-up for the county now is: Sax Weir, Orman Kimbrough and John Keeton, members of the Draft Board; S. H. Horton, Clerk; Marshall Perry, Attorney; Dr. J. S. Sharp, Medical Examiner.

It is understood that their work begins as soon as the registration cards are turned over to them by the Circuit Clerk.

R. D. SHARP, GRENADA'S NEW POSTMASTER INSTALLED

Mr. R. D. Sharp was officially checked in as postmaster of Grenada on Wednesday, October 16, 1940.

Tuesday and Wednesday, with the help of an inspector, Mr. George Criss, who has served as Acting Postmaster since May, 1938, relinquished the office to his successor, Mr. Sharp.

Mr. Sharp is the oldest son of Mayor Robert Sharp, of Grenada. He has lived in Grenada early all of his life, attended the Grenada schools, and volunteered his services in the World War as a member of Grenada's home company, Hq. Company, 140th U. S. F. A. He received his appointment from Congressman A. L. Ford. During the immediate past he has been working out of the office of the State Auditor.

Mr. Criss states that his own pans for the immediate future are yet indefinite.

PIG-PEN WOLF

After reaching home from the Vets Hospital, we learned that, to save the wolf from the pig, the wolf had to be put in a pen.

Who's At The Hospital

BY AINT THEY SWEET

Patients in the hospital: Patsy Lou Kurtze, Grenada; Mrs. S. L. Calhoun, Grenada; Alleen Thompson, Sweatman; Mrs. T. E. American Legion Holds Regular Meeting

Another large crowd of Legion members met at Legion Hall Friday night, with Commander McCune Talbert in the chair.

For the present, possibly only until after the football season, the regular meetings will be held on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays instead of on the 2nd and 4th Fridays.

Comrade L. O. Burris who is soon to leave to accept a position in Washington made a short address thanking the Post for the many honors it had conferred upon him and urging it onward.

The legion is to have a big muster, with eats galore on the 27th, and a committee on "eats" was named. More details of this will appear herein next week, as plans become more definite.

The Local Navy Recruiting Office made a brief talk urging upon the Post to assist in the observance of Navy Day on the 27th. The Post agreed to cooperate and a committee composed of ex-gobs was appointed with fully authority to act.

Comrade Will Moss moved a rising vote of thanks for past services rendered by Comrade and Ex-Commander L. O. Burris. This too met unanimous approval.

Meeting was closed with prayer by Commander Talbert.

WHITAKER RESIGNS FROM BOARD

The following letter dated October 14th and addressed to the Board of Aldermen, is self-explanatory:

Gentlemen:

Please accept this, my resignation from your honorable body.

I have been advised repeatedly by my physician, Dr. J. S. Sharp, to refrain from worry, to rest as much as possible and, in general, to slow up. It is very noticible to myself, that, for some reason or other, my duties (of which of late I have been very very neglectful) as alderman cause me more worry and fretting than everything else combined. I am no good to the city under these conditions, and I am worse on myself, and, therefore, I request most earnestly that my resignation be accepted as of this date.

I wish to say further that I am in full accord with the economy measures proposed to be made effective tonight, that I was consulted fully about them and agreed with them.

Very respectfully,
W. W. WHITAKER.

Mr. Whitaker has served as alderman at large for about two years and one-half.

NEW ADDITION TO QUANTRELL CHEVROLET COMPANY

Mr. A. C. Ball, formerly with D. D. Smith, this week associated himself salesmen with the Art Quantrell Chevrolet Company. The two other salesmen are Messrs. Boyce Clanton, formerly with Studebaker, and "Baby" Bingham, formerly with Moss Chevrolet Company.

Mr. Frank York, formerly postmaster and more recently acountant with W. H. Kirk, is the acountant of the firm, while Messrs. C. L. Stewart and "Chuck" Walker reign in the mechanical department.

2263 REGISTRANTS IN GRENADA COUNTY

According to information received from Hon. Charlie Worsham, our esteemed Circuit Clerk, who is charged with the duty, among other vital duties, of assembling the data from the several registration precincts, 2263 men of the 21-45 age-bass registered in the county yesterday, Wednesday, October 16, 1940.

J. C. COOPER MURDERED

Mr. J. C. Cooper, age 32, was killed Sunday morning, October 6th in Hulbert, Ark., and his body was brought to Grenada Tuesday for interment.

A trial was held Wednesday, charging Mr. Bailey Ford, of Hulbert with the shooting.

The deceased, a member of the Presbyterian Church, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooper, who now reside at Hulbert. They formerly lived at Tie Plant.

Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, Mr. James Cooper and one sister, Mrs. Alton Leverette.

The Rev. Mr. T. B. Thrower officiated at the grave side.

Services were held in the family home in Hulbert Monday afternoon.

To the bereaved ones we express our sympathy.

WANTED PATTERN

We are sending out a call to some of the old fashioned ladies who used and kept paper "patterns" to lend us a "pattern" for some diapers for our little doz. Billo the Second. Our little kitten, Sweetie, needs some diapers too.

Grenada Band Boosters Hold Meeting

The Grenada Band Boosters met October 15 at the High School for their regular monthly meeting. The elective officefs of this club for the ensuing year are:

President, Mrs. Roy Honeycutt; Vice President, Mrs. John Keeton; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Sax Weir.

Mrs. Keeton, acting president, in the absence of Mrs. Honeycutt, read a list of the various committees, previously appointed by the president as follows:

Finance, Mrs. John Keeton, Mrs. Estes Pleasants.

Attendance, Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. H. A. Alexander, Mrs. E. L. Morrow.

Program, Mrs. H. Graves, Mrs. R. H. Herring.

Transportation, Mrs. Jay Gore, Mrs. G. W. Patty, Mrs. L. D. Boone, Mrs. E. R. Burkley.

Publicity, Mrs. L. C. Angevine, Mrs. Mack McCord.

Label, Mrs. L. C. Angevine, Mrs. W. T. Rose, Mrs. O. D. Spratlin.

Mr. Dollarhide gave a report of the organization of the Kiddie Band, which will be directed by Misses Wilkins and Walker. This band is composed of first, second and third grade pupils, with fifty of the third graders playing tonettes. Mr. Dollarhide is well pleased with the interest and in the Kiddie Band.

The Band Boosters meet the second Tuesday of each month at the High School. The club membership is not restricted to parents of band students. Anyone who is interested in the further development and growth of the band is eligible for membership. Join the club and be a band booster.

Further announcement as to the exact date of next meting will be made in this paper.

HOME COMING AT B M C

Blue Mountain, Oct. 14—A portrait of General M. P. Lowrey, father of Mother Berry, will be presented to Blue Mountain College at the Homecoming November 16 when Mother Berry's 90th birthday will be celebrated. The portrait will be provided by alumnae and friends. It will hang in the college auditorium, which is itself a memorial to Mother Berry, along with portraits of her two brothers, former presidents of the college, and her own portrait presented to the college several years ago by the alumnae.

Geeneral M. P. Lowrey, warrior for his God and for his Southland, served as a private in the 2nd Mississippi Regiment in the War with Mexico. After his return from the Mexican War, he was ordained to the Baptist ministry at the age of 24 and pastored churches in Mississippi and Tennessee. Then came the War between the States, in which the preacher-warrior rose tto the rank of General, and was known along battle fronts as "The Fighting Parson of the Army of the Tennessee."

After the war General Lowrey continued his preaching and for several years served as Mississippi Editor of THE TENNESSEE BAPTIST, a denominational paper published in Memphis. He was president of the Mississippi Baptist Convention from 1868 to 1877, the longest tenure of anyone holding the office. In 1873 he founded Blue Mountain College and became its first president. His grandson, Dr. Lawrence T. Lowrey, is now president of the college.

Mother Berry is receiving letters from Alumnae from all sections of the country telling of their intentions to attend the Homecoming, some of them from as far as Iowa.

Mrs. Hubert Calhoon is County Chairman.

MUCH OBLIGED

Much obliged to our country correspondents, almost every one of which had some kindly thing to say of the editor while he was spending a vacation in the hospital.

It looks like Jim Shaw's army will be mobilized about the 25th of November, and will go to Florida to spend the winter. That's rich folks stuff, wintering in Florida.

LET'S OBSERVE THE PROPRIETIES

"By their fruits ye shall know them." Whether we realize it or not, this old axiom from the Bible has a direct application to our school life.

Already various organizations have made trips or planned trips for the future. There is a great temptation for the students who make these trips to go in for a "big time" and to act without reserve simply because of the comforting thought "so what? Nobody'll know me here." But did you ever think that since the students who go on these trips are a fairly representative group of the student body, the whole school is judged by the attitude and action of this group?

Let's try, then, in the future to forego a little bit of hilarity for the sake of preserving the good name and reputation of our Grenada High.

Last Tuesday the Seniors met at 3 o'clock to select their class rings. Each ring-buyers finger size was taken and the [illegible] from [illegible] of three kinds of rings selected by a special committee composed of Thomas Bell, Ed McCormick, John Keeton, Camilla Smith, Betty Rule and May Bailey.

This comittee selection was a most excellent one and was approved heartily by the class. Before the selections were made Mr. Rundle made it clear that no one was obliged to buy a ring and that if anyone felt that it would be wiser to use their money for something more necessary than a ring then the school advises that person's doing so.

DOROTHY WHITAKER WINS HIGH RATING AT ALL SAINTS

Dorothy Whitaker, 1939-40 editor of the weekly Bulldog and one of the outstanding members of the class, has the distinction of being in the highest section of freshmen at All Saints College, Vicksburg. Her theme on The Effects of Alcohol on The Human Body was judged the best writen by high school seniors in Grenada county. For this excellent piecce of work the board of supervisors awarded her the $100 prize, which the legislature recommedned should be offered to the winner in each county.

"Minerva's aimable disposition, industriousness, and helpfulness, in high school gained her many friends who are happy to know that her merit is recognized and rewarded.

ETOILE DUBARD ELECTED CLASS PRES. AT BAYLOR-BELTON

Etoile Dubard of the Grenada High Class of '38 has been chosen president of the junior class of Mary Hardin Seminary at Belton, Texas.

During her former two years at Mary Hardin Etoile has won other special honors as a member of various musical and dramatic groups and has done outstanding cdass work.

Again Grenada High rejoices at the success and honors won by her graduates.

Congratulations to Etoile and to the class for its wisdom in selecting a good leader!

CHAPEL PROGRAM

One of the most entertaining programs of the new year was the entire musical program of Wednesday, October 9. The band, directed by Mr. Dollarhide, accompanied the Glee Club and student body, under the direction of Miss Inez Donaldson, in a selection of old and new songs, among which were "Alma Mater" and other pep songs. This enjoyable program ended when the entire student body rose and sang "God Bless America."

FORESTRY PROGRAM

Wednesday afternoon, October 9, Captain Shaw, County Forester, conducted a contest among the representatives of the student body to make the students more "forest conscious." The contestants were Leon Provine, James Thomas, eleventh grade representatives; E. C. Litten, John Cheatham, tenth grade representatives; and Roy Honeycutt and Leonard Trussell, ninth grade representatives. The contest questions were based on the different phase of forest preservation. After the boys had answered four rounds of questions, the winners of the prizes were found to be Leon Provine, first; James Thomas, second and Roy Honeycutt, third.

Such programs as these have done much in keeping in the minds of the people the necessity of preserving the the forest resources of the nation.

BAND TRIP

A group of band students journeyed to Oxford, Miss., to hear the Marine Band concert at 3:45 on Tuesday afternoon, October 8. The students reported that they enjoyed making the trip and hearing the exceptionally good music.

DENTAL AND T. B. EXAMINATIONS

The last week has been spent in checking on the health of the students body. On Monday, October 7, Dr. C. K. Bailey made an examination of the teeth of the students.

On Tuesday, October 8, Dr. R. A. Clanton gave the tubercular test to all students.

ODDS AND ENDS

Coach: "Now we'll try the "Help Uncle Sam Signal."

Bedford T.: "What's that, Coach?"

Coach: "21 to 35 hike!"

WASTE BASKET

Amazing things never cease to happen, do they? And the most amazing thing is this new courtship of Billy Buck Shaw and Polly Richardson, not to mention that of Lynn Rose and Billy Guy Thomas.

We're still trying to find out the unknown who stuffed the study hall bell.

Benton Keeton and Frank Matthews were over heard discussing the merits of the freshmen—i. e. Ada Ruth Frazier and Margaret Green.

Another letter-receiver is Billy Horton. His letters come from Belzoni.

Mary Lou Cullen, Louise Avent, Carolyn Whitaker and Dorothy Talbert had quite a time in an overnightt camping trip Friday.

Lucy Moss is especially interested in the football team this year. The only question is: It is the Captain or an "end" man?

Ruby Grantham and Mildred Mess were exhibiting new beaus at League Sunday night.

Bobby Weir, Mickey Angevine and [illegible] had a time at Oxford Tuesday.

Berenice Jones, Hubert Nick and Verne Leggett seem to be the same old triangle.

Meg: "I think he's really getting serious now."

Peg: "Why?"

Meg: "He asked me to use a lighter nail polish."

What Miss Stevenson found on John Keeton's geography test paper: "I have neither given nor received help during this test: the latter is perfectly evident: and goodness knows I couldn't do the former."

Watermelon, watermelon, watermelon rind

Seniors, Sophomores, leading the line
Freshman, Juniors, tagging on behind.

Can't find out any gossip about Ernestine McNulty, Bobby Burris or Morrsi Clogston, no matter how hard I try.

Several of our Grenada boys seem to enjoy visiting Scobey on Sunday night.

If there's a gossip column next week you'll know that I got [illegible] ed off by irate readers who can't take the gossip.

MRS. BOWEN HONORED

On Monday evening, of this week, at the regular meeting of the Business Woman's Circle of Presbyterian Church, a delightfully planned kitchen shower was given in honor of one of its popular members, Mrs. Ethel Hill Bowen, a recent bride.

The Halloween motif was successfully carried out in emblems and in decorations made of black and gold crepe paper.

Three courses were served and during the serving of the dessert course, a huge Halloween pie, the base being a shiny dish pan and the top being of the gold crepe paper, the "filling" being many attractive and useful kitchen articles, was placed before the honoree, Mrs. Bowen.

Nineteen members were present to enjoy this delightful social held in the dining room of the Church.

DUCK HILL NEWS
by Mrs. M. S. Walker

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tyler and Mrs. Kathlenn Long of Newelton, La. spent Sunday night in Duck Hill with Mrs. W. E. Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Hollingsworth and their beautiful little daughter, Patricia, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Campbell.

Mrs. Alfred Sharp, of Memphis, is spending a week with her friend, Mrs. S. A. Snavely.

Mrs. W. L. Stoddard after a most enjoyable visit to her children in Memphis and Arkansas, is back at home.

Mrs. Cliff Stoddard and lovely little daughter, Geneva Ann, are at home after a visit to her home folks in Water Valley.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas are back after a visit to East St. Louis, Ill., and filled his regular appointment Sunday morning. They will soon move into their new home that is being built, or remodeled on Binford Avenue.

The oil derrick was all lit up from top to bottom last night and looked beautiful; we were afraid it had hibernated for the Winter and then some, but since the drillers have come back and work is being resumed—well "happy times are here again."

Many people attended the singing at Alva Sunday. It was reported there were over a thousand in attendance at this yearly event and singers from many places with splendid voices added much to the joy of the listeners.

We attended services at the Tie Plant Sunday and heard big Bailey preach, saw little Bailey and the baby Bailey, Bette Ann besides many friends we have known there a long time. After dinner with our kinfolks, Mr. J. L. Echols and daughter, Miss Kathleen Echols, and a wonderful dinner it was, a feast fit for the gods, also visited other kin, the Bonnie Echols family and the Asa Morris family Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jacks were there with their beautiful baby that attracts everyone's attention and no wonder the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Jacks are proud of a child as sweet as that. Did not have to pick Asa Morris' pockets, but he just gave us the subscription to the GCW and does not want to miss another single copy.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Gillispie of Memphis, visited their father, Dr. G. Y. Gillispie and the Aldridge family Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke, of Carrollton, honored the library with a visit during the week. Mrs. Duke was before her marriage, Miss Fannie Gorden and was a former resident of Duck Hill. No one ever lived in Duck Hill that had more friends for she was loved and respected by all. She owns the building that is being used for the library and we just hope she will come again before long.

Rev. and Mrs. H. N. McKibben visited their children, Mr. Edwin McKibben and Mrs. Ed Ellison at Lexington during the week.

Little Joel Edwards had the misfortune to fall and break his arm while playing at school this week.

Mr. Doyle Nail was at home from Moorhead Junior College with his home folks.

A group of school pupils attended the fair at Jackson last Friday.

Mrs. Joyce Benson and little Bellee Lou, from Kilmichael, visited relatives here the past week-end.

Mrs. Beatrice Cook, of Grenada, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wood.

The class rings have come and are the seniors happy.

LITTLE TEXAS NEWS

The first month of school at Calvary has successfully passed. The following honor roll has been handed in by the faculty.

First grade: Glennis Carrol.

Second grade: Katherine Collins, Luther Hood, Jr., Lucy Ezell, Jessie Corder, Paul Gray Martin, and William Earl White.

Third grade: Eileen Blaylock and Guy Heath, Jr.

Fourth grade: Mary Ruth Corder and Dorothy Jean Grantham.

Fifth grade: Sara Jean Blaylock, and Eunice Oleda Malone.

None was reported for the remaining grades in Grammar school or High school.

We notice in our G. C. W. of the continued absence of our editor who is away at the Veteran's Hospital. The best to you Mr. Whitaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bennett and sons visited friends and relatives at Bruce during the past week-end.

Several of our Little Texas people attended the fair at Jackson on Friday and Saturday of the past week. All report a very enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hollimon and son, Bruce, visited Mr. Hollimon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sudduth, of Coila, on Sunday.

At last Little Texas has had the good fortune of securing a government library. Mrs. Grover Lott is in charge and invites everyone to come in and check out books to read.

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Gardner and daughter, Lucette, visited Sunday at Holcomb where Rev. Gardner conducted services at the Holcomb Baptist Church.

We regret to report Mr. Ned Alderman on the sick list this week. He was very sick when last heard from, but we sincerely hope is much better and will soon be all right.

Embarrassing

When Acid Indigestion, Gas on Stomach or Heartburn make you feel uncomfortable or embarrass you, try Alka-Seltzer, which contains alkalizing buffers and so helps counteract the associated Excess Stomach Acidity.

But the relief of these minor stomach upsets is only a small part of what you can expect Alka-Seltzer to do for you. You will find it effective for Pain Relief in Headache, Neuralgia, Colds and Muscular Aches and Pains. It contains an analgesic, (sodium acetyl salicylate), made more prompt and effective in its pain-relieving action by alkaline buffer salts.

When hard work or strenuous exercise make you feel tired and dragged out, enjoy the refreshing effect of a glass of sparkling, tangy Alka-Seltzer.

Working a Dollar To Death

If there is such a thing as working a dollar overtime, the dollar that Sister J. W. Riley, formerly of Duck Hill, now of Chicago, spent for six months subscription to the GCW will be worked literally to skin and bones, if not to actual death.

Sister Riley promised, after dubiously risking a dollar in advance, that she would write back and tell us how she likes the GCW. She writes back that she is satisfied and adds that Mrs. Laura Moore Mitchell and Sarah will read it; also Mr. Parker Moore and family read it; also the Lee family of Hattiesburg have a whack at it; then son Douglass Riley comes over and reads it; then come Mr. Joe Taylor and somebody whose name we cannot decipher; then three more we cannot read; then Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Boyette from Grenada County; then the GCW apparently leaves the neighborhood and passes to Mr. and Mrs. Mason and daughter formerly of Carrollton who have a shot at it; then the Perrett trio, Curtis, Cecil and Gaines; take a free ride with the GCW; resuming its travels, it passes to Mrs. Dossy Moore and then to Mr. and Mrs. Lockett Gaines and it finally rests with the subscription's brother, George McVey. But does it really rest there, torn, mishandled, smutty and dishevled? Probably not. It is very likely that Brother McVey spreads it under his carpets and finally sells it to the waste paper man, or sends it for its last duty to the bath room.

Unhappily, Sister Riley apparently does not think THAT is enough, for she wants news from Futheyville, Hard Side, Clarkstown and Red Hill. Futheyville is the only of those communities we ever heard of.

Happily, Sister Riley offers also some cheering prospects that we will get a lot of subscriptions from that gang who, when Winter Comes, will prefer getting the GCW by mail delivered to the door than to have to wade snow belly deep to borrow it.

Winter oh Winters, please come quickly.

Stamp Plan Is The Only Plan of Salvation

It has never been the policy of The Gazette to cry "Wolf" when there was no wolf, but we have always tried to recognize our times of Stress when they appeared, and to separate those which were real from those which were imaginary.

In the present case, we find a "real wolf" in the person of the current program of "dumping" commodities into the county to those who are needy, those who think that they are needy, and to those who are simply certified that they are needy.

Certainly, even those who are the neediest are not being helped to get the essential needs that they lack in the manner which they would prefer under the present plan.

Commodity distribution by "dumping" cannot for a second be considered "satisfactory" to those who receive the commodities, to the government, to the government, to those charged with reduction of surplus commodities, nor to the legitimate merchant, with fixed overhead and paying more than his share of the taxes collect by the state. And why?

Those who have surplus commodities "dumped" on them do not receive a balanced diet; for 100 pounds of potatoes and 30 dozen cold storage eggs in one week, followed by a crate of California pears and a sack of cabbage the next week is not a balanced ration. How much better it would be if he could receive the same amount but receive it in the various items he needed as he needed it it from his local grocer.

Distribution by "dumping" means uneven distribution, with some getting more than their share,—some getting less than their share, and some nothing at all, while the perishable commodities are often rotting for lack of distribution machinery.

The government, particularly the county and city government are called on to supply trucks, warehouse space and other expensive items and feel that at the same time that theey are not see a job well done.

To those charged with reduction of surplus commodities in the nation, there can be no satisfaction. For example, in bringing to Union county a carload of cold storage eggs, perhaps bought in Minnesota at 29 to 30 cents per dozen, with freight added, and distributed in the county where local egg producers, urged to produce eggs as a supplementary income for the farm cannot sell their fresh eggs for 12 or 15 cents because the market has been flooded.

To the merchant, it means only that he is buying merchandise of the same nature distributed by "dumping" and seeing it rot in his warehouses. He is called upon for sacks to sack the commodities and for other services and with his decreased volume, faces bankruptcy a little nearer each day.

We must leave no stone unturned until we shall have secured the Stamp Plan for the distribution of surplus commodities or else we too shall be seeking a place in the commodity line.—New Albany Gazette.

This newspaper is mighty glad that it did not neglect to use its space freely last week in publishing the Proclamation of the President, and the details of the registration held Wednesday, and to urge subscribers to pass the information on. It is also mighty glad that it sent out to each country store of the county a bundle of extra copies, asking the store-keeper to pass the copies on.

Best wishes to all the doctors, nurses and friends at the Vets Hospital.

Good Work Burris

At the instance of Mr. Will Moss at a recent Legion meeting, a rising vote of thanks for past services to the Legion was given for Mr. L. O. Burris who is shortly leaving for Washington.

The writer, while a regular member of the American Legion, has participated in its activities to a very limited extent, and, therefore, he has somewhat of a detached viewpoint, he can and does put his foot and cry "amen" to the thanks given Mr. Burris.

From our detached viewpoint, we can sincerely say that we believe that Burris has been one of the real mains; rings and one of the real main stays of Grenada Post for a number of years, and this is being said without taking a whit from the praise due the many other members who have toiled "in the vineyard."

Thanking Mr. Burris publicly at the instigation of Mr. Moss was a happy thought. These thanks were expressed to one who has worked ceaselessly and unselfishly for the advancement of Legionism and particularly for Legionism in his adopted city.

We feel that we express a thought common to all of our fellow members when we wish Mr. Burris success in his new field. He has not only served the local post as Commander, but is now serving this district as District Commander.

Does Grenada Want the Food Stamp Plan?

In a recent issue, we explained briefly the operation of the government Food Stamp Plan. After checking with official regulations, we found that our article was substantially correct.

We find, in the official regulations, however, that the government authorities want, first, to ascertain whether the people of the community as a whole want the plan, that there is a real need and a real desire, shared by most of the people, that Grenada County have this plan inaugurated.

Therefore, in our opinion, the first step to be taken is that of convincing the federal authorities that we DO want the plan. Therefore, we believe that one or all of the civic bodies get a census of opinion from the two classes directly concerned, viz: the retail merchants, and the WPA and PWA workers and the direct relief clients and the others affected.

In such a test of public opinion, believed by us to be vitally necessary, the GCW volunteers its service.

We are indeted to Mr. Herbert B. Allen, now at Army and Navy Hospital in Hot Springs, for many fine articles concerning the war. He is one of the most intelligent men we ever knew.

Red White and Blue

Herbert B. Allen

When I was a boy, in a small Canadian town, we always enjoyed having visitors from the 'States,' as we called our neighbor to the south. While individual Americans with their genial and generous ways were well liked, this feeling did not extend to their country generally. The United States was notorious at that time for several conditions which did not appeal to the serious and religious minded Canadians. Political corruption was rampant, the great American 'trusts' were regarded with suspicion, and the ease with which wealthy criminals avoided conviction in the courts did not exactly reflect equality before the law in the United States. We had our own rascals in Canada, but they were not in circulation very long after the discovery of their misdeeds. There has been only one bank failure in Canada within my memory. The president of that bank escaped to the United States and I believe the police are still searching for him after thirty years. He is still mentioned in the Canadian newspapers.

The first political campaign I recall was fought over the commercial reciprocity treaty which President Taft offered to Canada. Great excitement prevailed, for the Conservative party warned that the great American trusts would smother our small enterprises and that the treaty was but the opening wedge by means of which the Americans hoped to eventually acquire Canada. And the Canadians were sufficiently apprehensive of that danger, real or imagirary, to defeat the popular Liberal Prime Minister, Sir Wilfred Laurier, who sponsored the treaty in the Canadian parliment.

Thirty years have brought about radical changes in Canadian opinion and the entry of America into the war as an ally in 1917 and the friendly feeling engendered by the international tourists were important factors in reversing the trend. Today nearly as many Canadians reside in the United States as there are in Canada. The members of the American Expeditionary Force learned to know the English, Scotch and Irish soldiers, the legions from Australia and New Zealand, and the Canadian Expeditionary Force. Even before the American entry the Canadian Battalions were interspersed with soldiers who spoke with amusing accents strangly unfamiliar to Canadian ears, and strongly suggestive of Connecticut, Georgia, Texas or Montana. These Americans were 'a little bit of all right' and they are not forgotten by their comrades who fought the Word War.

President Roosevelt enjoys a reputation throughout the British Empire such as no president since Teddy Roosevelt has attained. The social and economic legislation of the present administration has been watched with great interest, and the strengthening of the federal courts and the successful prosecution of powerful offenders have greatly enhanced the preestige of the United States. Chicago's infamous underworld is no longer a mocking symbol of Americn government,'

Canadians notice that practically all of the key positions in the United States are usually in the hands of men with English or Scotish names. These key positions are politically—the presidency, the 96 United States Senators and the 9 Justices of the U. S. Supreme Court. Economically—the directors of a small group of controlling banks in New York, Boston and Chicago, and the boards of directors of the all powerful great insurance companies. Those unfamiliar with the financial district usually conceive of Wall Street as the Stock Exchange, brokerage offices and the machinery of speculation in general. The great money power is really in the hands of those institutions that receive your insurance premiums. Thru the ownership of securities, and other channels of control more subtle, they largely determine the policies of banks, railroads, utilities, commercial and industrial enterprises. Their influence is everywhere felt.

Below this dominating group are to be found the names of men of all races and creeds and nationalities which poured into the country when it was the promised land. Those swarms broughtt with them all of their racial and national hatreds. Not only did these hatreds not melt in the 'pot' but they were kept flourishing by the vivid foreign language press, which survives to this day even after large scale importations from Europe's shores have ceased a quarter of a century. Few Americans appreciate the power of the present day foreign language press and the bitterness of the hatreds it serves to perpetrate in America

From around 1840 to the turn of the century the new arrivals were principally Irish and German; more recently Italian, Austro-Hungarian, Polish and Russian. With all of their differeing habits and cistoms and traditions, these new arrivals shared one characteristic in common. They broughtt with them a distinct distaste for a small island in the North sea, with an area about equivalent to the state of Mississippi—perfidious Albion! For England's wealth, her naval supremacy, political domination and rich empire have been the envy of all Europe in modern times.

Today the emigrants and their descendants are legion, and their political power is such that no major party would dare to antagonize the German, Irish Italian vote. On the contrary these votes are cultivated by practical politicians. This fact has had a pronounced bearing on the relations of the British and American governments. But not in a century has public opinion in the United States crystalized on the subject of foreign policy as it has during the past six months. The United States is now scathingly branded in the press of Germany, Italy and Russia as a hated democracy and 'plutocracy.' Along with England, America is now arraigned by the dictators as an obstacle in the path of a new world order—a new, ironical term meaning world chaos.

America's vast agricultural and industrial development, her expanding foreign trade and foreign investments, immense accumulations of wealth, powerful and efficient navy, and her democratic philosophies have placed her in the same position that England has occupied in 'splendid isolation' since the industrial revolution brought wealth and power to Britannia.

There are certain broad parallels between the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States. England corresponds roughly with the great industrial and commercial region stretching from New England to the Mississippi River, north of the Potomac and Ohio Rivers. The fertile Southland, the broad prairies of the Middle West, an the magnificent Pacific slope regions find counterparts in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Canada. Endowed with similar political institutions, agricultural and mineral wealth, unexcelled commerce and industry, boundless nautral resources and great material wealth, America and the British Empire now share in common the envy, malice and hatred of the world's dictators in Berlin, Rome, Moscow and Tokyo; a vast grouping of two diametrically opposed ideologies — the power of the totalitarian state versus the power of the individual to control his own affairs.

In my opinion, when we witnessed the transfer of those fifty American destroyers to the Union Jack and the sensational transfer of British bases for the American armed forces, naval, military and areial, we saw the first practical step taken toward the establishment of an Anglo-American Commonwealth of Nations — an amalgamation of English speaking nations of such magnitude in terms of wealth, military power, and resources both naterial and spiritual, as to stagger the imagination.

What, a blessing such an Anglo-American Commonwealth would be to this war stricken world. Had such a powerful influence existed five years ago the Austrians would not have been intimidated; the Czechs would have remained unmolested; the Poles would have been saved partition of their country; he Finns, Danes and Norwegians would have escaped servitude; the Dutch and Belgians have avoided the horors of destruction; and proud France saved from the ignomity of crushing defeat. The German people would not have to suffer the devastating chaos which will surely follow the bursting of Hitler's gigantic bubble; and the Italian poor, least of all able to afford the heavy burdens of war, would be sapred from the great privations they face in the near future.

Military might is no longer mesured in terms of millions of armed men. The industrial equipment of a nation is now the criterion of its strength; natural resources and adequate supplies of war materials the backbone of its fighting men. The United States controls, together with the British Empire, the preponderance of the world's wealth, raw materials and industrial plant. With their mighty navies, a superlative air force and a small mechnized army, their police powers would be so unassailable that no nation, or combination of nations, would dare to challenge them, and their will to preserve the peace.

I am an American citizen and have proudly worn the shoulder straps of my Uncle Sam's army. I was born and educated under the Union Jack. I have worked for Uncle San in the London that is being pounded day and night. Theere is no doubt in my mind that England will administer a terrible blow to Germany in due time—with the aid of the full power of America's industrial system! It is badly needed.

All of England's sacrifices of men, of treasure, of materials and of beloved landmarks in her glorious history, will not have been in vain if her struggle with the force of darkness there are born new and enduring ties with America which shall make the recurrance of these world conflagrations definitely a thing of the past.

As I write, here in the Southland, I remember the magnanimous meetings between Generals Washington and Cornwallis; between Generals Grant and Lee. Since those days the English speaking soldiers have fought side by side as comrades in France and Belgium, the American troops often brigaded with the British divisions on the western front. What gesture on the world's stage could be so happy a portent for the future as a reunion of old John Bull and his scatered sons, with their old Uncle Samuel? What relief from apprehension for loved ones, from the crushing burden of taxation war or armed neutrality exacts, from the necessity of drafting men from their homes, would be the certain consequence of such a reunion. It is not practical—is it not desirable—is it not time? The Stars and Stripes and the Union ack have always had one thing in common—they are both RED WHITE AND BLUE!

Beat It If You Can

Grenada County recently refunded $35,000.00 of per cent bonds, issued in 1916, on a 2 1-2 per cent basis The buyers were Grenada Bank and the Union Planters Bank of Memphis. A premium was paid on these bonds.

We city officers used to look down from the impregnable heights of financial stability upon the weak and lowly county, then aparently almost bogged down in financial and debt problems. Today we find that Larus, the county, has pulled nearly $400,000.00 out of debt; while the erstwhile "rich man", the city, has gone deeper in debt, and even now, six or seven months before the next tax receiving time, finds the funds for general purposes exhausted.

There should be some sort of moral in this tale somewhere.

A Big Job. Well Done

We think all of the officers and citizens charged with the duty of registering the 21-35 class of men in this county deserve commendation for a big job, done well.

We feel like we should say something particularly complimentary of Charlie Worsham, but, should we do so we might omit the names of others who worked as hard and as efficiently as did Charlie, and therefore we content ourselves with commending all people actively engaged in the taking of the registration and in the equally as important task of organizing the county for the registration.

With the fair and impartial registration already out of the way, Grenada County people now look with confidence to the Draft Board's work which will entail the ticklish problem of classifying the registrants for service.

Aint they sweet.

Constitutional Amendment To Be Voted On

House Concurrent Resolution No. 29 which calls for a Constitutional Amendment will appear on the ticket of the General Election which will be held in November. The question involved in this Resolution is simple and it should be adopted by the people of the State. The records reveal that the House recorded only one vote, for one days reading against this resolution. The other two roll calls of the House, as well as the Senate, were unanimous for its passage. This record alone should satisfy the voters that this Resolution is important and should pass, as your lawmakers have approved it 100 percent and are now asking your support to enable them to carry thru this important legislation.

The purpose of this legislation is to provide for the sale or disposal of certain lands granted in lieu of sixteenth section lands where these lands are not located in counties owning same. This problem affects some 48 counties of the State, which have found from years experience, that the lands in question are unprofitable and that its location in other counties has worked a hardship on these respective counties.

This will be the only Constitutional Amendment on the ticket for the November elections.

BUSY DAYS ARE HERE

The vacation days of Summer have gone, and Autumn's busy days are here again. There are children to get off to school, summer clothes to be stored, and woolens to be retrieved from the moth balls. Which means errands to be run, dry cleaning to be done, shopping trips to be made and a hundred and one other things that add to the cares of the busy housewife,

Well, there's one sure way to relieve a lot of this hurry-worry. Let the telephone run the errands while you take it easy,

If you already have telephone service but only one telephone, you probably lose a lot of time running downstairs or from one room to another to answer or place calls. A handy extension telephone upstairs or in some other much-frequented part of the house would put an end to most of this tiresome leg work.

Prepare now for the busy days ahead. Call the telephone office today and let us tell you how little it costs to enjoy all the benefits which telephone service or an extension can give you. — Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company, Incorporated.

THIS ESTABLISHMENT IS HELPING MAKE BEER A REAL ASSET TO MISSISSIPPI

Beer is a legally established ... sale of well drawn beer ... their annual gross sales ... $1,200,000 a year.

Beer pays taxes, wages ... rides about a million ... distribution points, ... beer matter and supplies, ... needed to serve the public.

IT IS EASY TO SEE THAT THIS BUSINESS WORTHWHILE AND WELL WORTH PRESERVING FOR OUR STATE AND COMMUNITIES. TO DO THIS IT MUST BE KEPT FREE FROM ... LAW VIOLATIONS.

This establishment has joined hands with the Brewers and Mississippi Beer Distributors Committee in an effort to stamp out all offensive conditions surrounding the sale of beer — an effort in which YOU can assist by patronizing only those retail outlets which are conducted in accord with law and public sentiment in your community.

1. WILL NOT permit liquor to be sold or consumed here
2. WILL NOT permit unsanitary conditions
3. WILL NOT sell or give beer to drunks
4. WILL NOT permit solicitation
5. WILL NOT permit loafing

Hundreds of law-abiding beer retailers are now displaying this card in their places of business. It indicates a recognition of their civic responsibility and their determination to conduct their businesses in a manner that will preserve the social and economic benefits of beer to Mississippi.

Whyt Whitaker Jr.

Received a nice letter from "Shot" Hill the other day and after reading it I am sure that he must be having a heck of a time up at Davidson. Referring to his fellow students he says: "You never saw such a hot crew of fellows in your life as they have up here. They are smooth operators galore! If you have a girl don't bring her around this damn place or she's gone. As for the North Carolina women, they are unbeatable. They're not quite as good looking as a whole as our Delta girls but their attitudes are so agreeable."

He said for me to give his regards to the entire GCW staff from your dad on down to Cowboy Terrell. Also pass out greetings for me in the White Way-Belmont area and in the zones south of the border and north of the moon.

Jack McClure, Jr., and I motored over to Birmingham to see the State-Auburn football game. It was a long way to drive to see—talk about the heat under the hi game. State played decent football for 50 minutes and then folded up and let the Plainsmen score. Those often happens in the gridiron and without these things football would not be what it is.

Every man, woman and child in the United States could ride on rubber tires at the same time and have room left over to accommodate a great number of Canadians and Mexicans. Rolling over American roads and streets are 31,400,000 motor vehicles. That just goes to show how prosperous these United States are. Registered in the United States are 71 percent of all the passenger cars operated on earth. Incidentally, this country is not for sale. Dictators need not apply!

Registration day found 2,263 men going to the different places in this county and turning in the information the government needs to carry through the Selective Service Law. This number seems small since the population of Grenada County is somewhat over the 19,000 mark. 2263 is about 11 per cent of the population and there should be about 15 per cent of the citizens between the age of 21 and 36—about 2800 should be in the age limit.

AUTUMN LEAVES

To Helen Berry From Edith Berry

The Autumn leaves are falling
Softly to the ground,
A gentle little rustle
Is their only sound,
As from the mother tree,
They flutter down.
Without a backward gdance,
At their mother standing there:
They dance o'er the earth.
And whirl in the air,
Sister and brother
Laughing at each other:
Whispering their delight.
In their new found might,
With this new-born treasure,
Searching for more pleasure,
Searching for more pleasure,
They do not know the measure of their morth.
